ELECTION FORM FOR TRANSFER OF LUMP SUM DISTRIBUTION

The Unemployment Compensation Amendments Act of 1992 implemented an automatic 20% tax on lump sum distributions and lump sum death benefits when benefits are paid directly to a plan participant or beneficiary. However, you may elect to have all or part of a lump sum distribution transferred directly to an IRA (Individual Retirement Account) or to another qualified plan that accepts transfers and the amount transferred will not be subject to the 20% income tax withholding.

Check one of the following

- I have reviewed the enclosed tax notice and I elect to have the entire lump sum distribution paid directly to me. I understand that the Fund is required to withhold 20% of the distribution for income tax purposes.
